Dear Mr. Amri,

Thank you for sending your manuscript Characterization of in vitro hemocompatibility of PVA-alginate ester as candidate of hemodialysis membrane for consideration to International Journal of Biological Macromolecules. Please accept this message as confirmation of your submission.

When should I expect to receive the Editor's decision?

For International Journal of Biological Macromolecules, the average editorial time (in weeks) from submission to first decision is: 5.61 and from submission to final decision is: 7.56.

What happens next?

Here are the steps that you can expect as your manuscript progresses through the editorial process in the Elsevier Editorial System (EES).

1. First, your manuscript will be assigned to an Editor and you will be sent a unique reference number that you can use to track it throughout the process. During this stage, the status in EES will be "With Editor".
2. If your manuscript matches the scope and satisfies the criteria of International Journal of Biological Macromolecules, the Editor will identify and contact reviewers who are acknowledged experts in the field. Since peer-review is a voluntary service, it can take some time but please be assured that the Editor will regularly remind reviewers if they do not reply in a timely manner. During this stage, the status will appear as "Under Review".

Once the Editor has received the minimum number of expert reviews, the status will change to "Required Reviews Complete".

3. It is also possible that the Editor may decide that your manuscript does not meet the journal criteria or scope and that it should not be considered further. In this case, the Editor will immediately notify you that the manuscript has been rejected and may recommend a more suitable journal.

For a more detailed description of the editorial process, please see Paper Lifecycle from Submission to Publication: http://help.elsevier.com/app/answers/detail/a_id/160/p/8045/

How can I track the progress of my submission?

You can track the status of your submission at any time at <http://ees.elsevier.com/IJBIOMAC>

Once there, simply:

1. Enter your username: Your username is: chamri@hotmail.com

If you need to retrieve password details, please go to: http://ees.elsevier.com/IJBIOMAC/automail_query.asp

International Journal of Biological Macromolecules

Dear Mr. Choirul Amri,

Thank you for submitting the above manuscript to International Journal of Biological Macromolecules. We have now received the reviewers' reports, and regrettably I must inform you that the manuscript is not acceptable for publication in its present form, and requires major revision before it can be reconsidered for publication.

For your guidance, reviewers' comments are appended below. I believe that the comments/suggestions made by the reviewers are self-explanatory. As you can see from the comments below this paper requires professional input to bring the use of English language up to an acceptable standard - you may have contacts within your institution - a helpful Elsevier site is <http://webshop.elsevier.com/>

If you decide to revise the work, please submit an itemized list of changes which have been made in response to the reviewer's comments/suggestions or a rebuttal of why a particular comment/suggestion was not acted upon. In order to expedite publication of the manuscript, I would appreciate receiving the revised manuscript by May 29, 2015.

To submit a revision, please go to <http://ees.elsevier.com/ijbiomac/> and login as an Author.
Your username is: chamri@hotmail.com

If you need to retrieve password details, please go to: http://ees.elsevier.com/IJBIOMAC/automail_query.asp

On your Main Menu page is a folder entitled "Submissions Needing Revision". You will find your submission record there.

Please note that the revised manuscript will then be sent to reviewers for further consideration.

Thank you for your assistance and co-operation in the above matter. I look forward to receiving the revised manuscript.

For further assistance, please visit our customer support site at <http://help.elsevier.com/app/answers/list/p/7923>. Here you can search for solutions on a range of topics, find answers to frequently asked questions and learn more about EES via interactive tutorials. You will also find our 24/7 support contact details should you need any further assistance from one of our customer support representatives.

Please note that this journal offers a new, free service called AudioSlides: brief, webcast-style presentations that are shown next to published articles on ScienceDirect (see also <http://www.elsevier.com/audioslides>). If your paper is accepted for publication, you will automatically receive an invitation to create an AudioSlides presentation.

Kind regards.
